Southold Historical Museum's Ice Cream Social Saturday, August 6, 2022 1-4pm Maple Lane Complex, 55200 Main Rd., Southold, NY 11971

"We all scream for ice cream."

No one can put on an ice cream social quite like the Southold Historical Museum. For many years, families have flocked to the historical museum grounds for fun – including delicious ice cream. The festivities will return this year on August 6, 2022.

Ice cream lovers of all ages are sure to enjoy the event. Children's games, live music, antique cars, blacksmithing and printing demonstrations add to the fun. Included in the day's activities will be tours of the many historic buildings at the site, including the Ann Currie-Bell, Thomas Moore House, the Gagen Blacksmith Shop and the Robert P. Long Print Shop. There will also be snacks and drinks for purchase – of course including Ice Cream! The Museum's seasonal exhibition – "Summer Colonies of Southold" – will also be on display in the Mayne Gallery of the Ann Currie-Bell House.

"The Ice Cream Social has long been a very popular event in our community. Children would look forward to the Social each summer, and families would make certain to be in town that weekend." said Deanna Witte-Walker, the Museum's executive director. "After a little hiatus, we are thrilled to be able to bring back this treasure."

The Ice Cream Social is Saturday, August 6 from 1 to 4 pm at the Museum's Maple Lane Complex, located on the corner of Main Road and Maple Lane, opposite the Southold Firehouse. Entrance to the grounds is $5 per adult. Kids 12 and under enter for free.
