PRESS RELEASE

Ten Squared: A Season for Art Online Art Exhibition and Sale at the Southold Historical Museum

The popular Ten Squared is a fundraising exhibition and sale to benefit Southold Historical Museum. This exhibition and sale is both themed and titled Ten Squared: A Season for Art. In this non-juried exhibition, artists are invited to submit pieces that are exactly 10"x 10". Each work is sold for $100, half of which benefits Southold Historical Museum. The online exhibit and sale takes place November 15 through December 15, 2022.

Nature puts on a show as it prepares for winter. Some of the most remarkable colors can be seen in late Autumn. The theme of this year's Ten Squared will celebrate the beauty of the season.

This is a wonderful opportunity to purchase works by your favorite local artists at a modest price, all while supporting the museum. The varied selection ensures there is something for everyone. Original artwork makes a terrific gift! Deanna Witte-Walker, the Museum Executive Director states, "Local artists are in touch with the many natural motifs that are found this time of year. Their works are a lovely tribute to our precious environment." The virtual format lends itself well to featuring artwork. Everyone is invited to view the exhibition, and those who wish may purchase. Shipping is available as well.

The online exhibit and sale will be offered on the Museum's website, www.southoldhistorical.org, November 15-December 15, 2022.
