Fourth Annual Pickleball Tournament to Benefit Southold Historical Museum

SOUTHOLD, NY --Southold Historical Museum's "History in the Making" Pickleball Tournament is scheduled for Saturday, June 7, 2025 at Tasker Park in Peconic.

Intermediate and advanced players are encouraged to register in advance for this fundraising event for the Museum. Limited slots are available and registration is now open. There are two tournaments to choose from and different levels of play depending on your skill.

The morning tournament which runs from 9 AM to 12 Noon is change partner, round-robin format. This tournament includes 48 people, three pools of 16, segmented by intermediate, advanced intermediate, and advanced players.

The afternoon session, which starts at 12:30 PM is a competitive team tournament. There is a limit of 16 players per level, eight teams of two for each level. Gender blind. Register for level 3.5-4. OR 4.0+. The Afternoon Team Tournament will be double elimination, meaning you have to lose twice before you are eliminated. Games are first team to 11 points. You and a named partner must register for the Team Afternoon Tournament.

Due to limited number of players, advanced registration is suggested to avoid being shut out. The registration fee is $55 for either tournament ($60 after April 15). Refreshments provided. Rain date June 8.

Started in 2022, this fundraising event has brought new faces and a lot of fun to the Museum's schedule of activities. A cross between tennis and racquetball, pickleball is an inspiring sport for people of all ages. Supporters are invited to get moving, take in some fresh air, and make some friends all while supporting Southold Historical Museum.
